

Parent-child centre in Oldenfelde

Education from the start – a place for families

About us

As new parents you experience an exciting and wonderful but also sometimes exhausting time. We at the parent-child centre in Oldenfelde will be at your side.

At our place, you can exchange your experience with other parents in a relaxing atmosphere, as well as get answers to urgent issues: Is my child developing according to its age? What toys serve its development? How can I cook healthy and delicious for my family? You can address problems relating to education and family in an open manner in our courses and counselling services as well as in a confidential talk.

We start the day at nine o'clock with a joint breakfast. Afterwards our free offers start. Maybe you also need sometimes a moment of relaxation in your daily routine? We try to provide this to you.

We are a place for families: Fathers and grandparents are also welcome with their grandchildren as well as older siblings: We are attuned to children of different age groups up to schoolchildren. We are looking forward to seeing you!

Our team

Nicole Groth coordinates our counselling services and course offer. External experts support her in this.

Concept

What is important to us – briefly

- a friendly and trusting atmosphere in the house
- cooperative partnership with parents and children
- time to listen and for conversations
- support of families
- close cooperation with our day care centres Rappelkiste and Spatzennest as well as the association Pestalozzi and other institutions
- education and promotion of the children from birth on
- a pedagogy that is oriented at the needs of the children
- counselling and courses which facilitate everyday life
- support in searching for continuous counselling
- bring parents into conversation
- free offers
